MCLAREN ON POMOMUSINGS | MAY 9TH

Tomorrow Brian McLaren, one of the leading voices of Emergent and a prolific author, will be blogging here at pomomusings. The topic will be "Conversations about Hell" and for anyone who has read his newest book, The Last Word and the Word After That, this would be a great chance to come and discuss the book, and other things, with Brian. You don't have to have read the book, but it would help even if you just have it to skim through it some. Come read Brian's post - the conversation will take place in the comment section, as Brian will be checking back once a day to post comments, for the next week or so. So, come, check it out, and if you want to carry on the conversation in a more real-time fashion, go read about how you can jump on Habbohotel on possibly run into Brian there...
